If you prefer to spend tonight in more relaxed attire, feel free to dress more casually in the following venues: Lido Buffet, Golden Lion Pub, Casino, Winter Garden and Yacht Club. Please note Non-ripped jeans are appropriate, but please refrain from wearing shorts, sports attire, swim wear or sleeveless t-shirts outside of the gym, spa and deck spaces.

Guests are kindly reminded that wheelchair assistance (if required) will be provided to assist guests on and off the gangway only. As per the terms and conditions stated in the Cunard brochure, guests must be able to make their own way to the transportation on the pier, or be accompanied by a travel companion who is able to assist them.

Safety and security ashore.

Whilst we do not wish to restrict your movements ashore today, we do suggest taking the following precautions:

- ◆ Do not stray from the main tourist areas.
- ◆ Do not wear any jewellery that is likely to attract attention.
- ◆ Be careful to secure personal possessions in pockets, wallets and handbags as pickpockets can operate in all cities.
- ◆ We advise you to be careful if you are taking any high value items, including cameras ashore.
- ◆ Maintain an awareness of your surroundings at all times.

In the unlikely event of you becoming a victim of a crime ashore please ask to see the Security Officer on your return to the ship

White star luggage service.

You are able to make arrangements to have the "White Star Luggage Service" transport your luggage home from Queen Victoria, from your disembarkation port of Southampton. ## From the Navigator.

After departing Cadiz last night, Queen Victoria made her way south before then heading east through the busy traffic lanes of the Gibraltar Straits, the only route into the Mediterranean from the west. After exiting the Strait, with Gibraltar Rock to our port side we headed parallel to the Spanish coast towards Malaga.

If the Strait of Gibraltar closes again, which is likely to happen in the near geological future (though extremely distant on a human time scale), the Mediterranean would evaporate completely in about a thousand years.

In the port of Malaga, Spain.

All Aboard Time: 5.30pm

Málaga is a port city, located in southern Spain, on the Costa del Sol on the northern side of the Mediterranean Sea. It lies at the feet of the Montes de Málaga, about 100 kilometres (62 miles) east of the Strait of Gibraltar and about 130 km (81 miles) to the north of Africa. Málaga is known for its high-rise hotels and resorts jutting up from yellow-sand beaches. Looming over that modern skyline are the city's two massive hilltop citadels, the Alcazaba and ruined Gibralfaro, remnants of Moorish rule. Malaga has more museums than any other city in Andalusia; over 30 at last count - and new ones are opening all the time. The opening of the Picasso Museum in 2003 triggered the city's cultural rebirth, and visitors are now flocking to this port city which boasts excellent transport, top-class cuisine and fascinating monuments, from Moorish and Roman times through to modern day - while retaining its authentic Andalusian feel. In addition to homage to the great Picasso, other great historic monuments include the imposing Baroque Cathedral, nicknamed La Manquita ("one-armed lady") because one of its towers was curiously left unbuilt, and the newly restored Roman theatre. High on the hill above the city is the Parador, which is situated in the Gibralfaro Castle. This is a wonderful place to have a long lunch in these fascinating surroundings, with panoramic views over Malaga city and out across the port to sea.
