

Daily Programme.

From the Navigator.

Today Queen Elizabeth keeps to a looped-track parallel to the French Coast, heading north and south. A high pressure system presently sits across the eastern side of the Bay of Biscay, giving way to favourable weather.

Queen Elizabeth will sail past the French headland of Cap Ferret, famous for its lighthouse and as an up-market resort at the heart of the Landes of Gascony and the Pays de Buch. It is also famous for its oyster-farming activity and numerous tasting sites.

Tonight in the Queens Room. British Comedian, Jeff Stevenson.

Jeff is back with a brand new show, with more Laughs from London, this is one show not to miss. Seated guests only, please. No standing room permitted due to social distancing measures.

At 8.45pm & 10.45pm,
📍 Queens Room, Deck 2, Midships

'OMG! We're All Going to Die
(Asteroids, Comets and Meteors).'
A scary and humorous talk about the dangers we face from Near Earth Objects. This talk will have you gasping and laughing in equal measure.

High Profile Lecture, Professor Turi E King.

At 10.45am

Turi King is probably best known for 'cracking on' of the biggest forensic DNA cases in history' when she led the project identifying the remains of King Richard III whose skeleton had been unearthed in a Leicester carpark. She is now working on a number of other cases including identifying the remains of Robert the Bruce and Sir George Yeardley of Jamestown, Virginia, who presided over the first representative government in what would become the U.S., the announcement to be made in the Rotunda on Capitol Hill. Alongside this, she is co-presenting BBC DNA Family Secrets with Stacey Dooley using the latest DNA technology to solve family mysteries around ancestry, missing relatives and genetic disease. Turi will give you the behind-the-scenes stories of these projects and the new projects she has on the horizon. This talk will be simulcast live in the Golden Lion Pub and on stateroom TV channel 49.

Dr Helen Doe.

At 12.30pm
'The First Atlantic Liner:
Brunel's Great Western Steamship.'
The Great Western is the least known of Brunel's three great ships. However, this paddle steamer was his first great success, confounding the critics to be the fastest ship to steam continuously across the Atlantic. It connected Bristol/Liverpool and New York and began the era of luxury transatlantic liners. It was the Concorde of its era and carried the rich and the famous and those in a hurry.

What to wear.

Wednesday, 25 August ..... Gala Evening Attire (Roaring 20s)*
Thursday, 26 August ..... Smart Attire

Gala Evening.

Dinner jacket, tuxedo, or dark suit with regular tie or bow tie for gentlemen. Evening or cocktail dress, smart trouser suit, or formal separates for ladies.

Smart Attire.

Gentlemen, every night we request you wear trousers with a collared shirt; jacket and tie is optional. Ladies, blouses and skirts or stylish trousers and dresses are welcome.

Relax.

Feel free to dress casually as you visit any of the following venues: Lido Restaurant, Golden Lion, Casino, Café Carinthia, Garden Lounge and The Yacht Club.

Non-ripped jeans are appropriate, but please refrain from wearing shorts, sports attire, swim wear or sleeveless t-shirts outside of the gym, spa and deck spaces.

Alcohol policy.

Guests under 18 years of age are not permitted to purchase or consume alcohol on board. Please be aware that proof of age by means of government issued photographic identification, may be requested. Guests under the age of 18 years are also not permitted in The Yacht Club after 11.00pm.

Man overboard drill.

At 9.30am this morning the crew will be exercised in their duties responding to a Man Overboard. Announcements will be made over the ship's Public Address system, but no action is required by our guests. We kindly ask guests to avoid areas where the crew may be working during this exercise.

Preparing for your onward journey.

We trust you've had an enjoyable and memorable time on board Queen Elizabeth. The Purser's Office will be writing to all guests with important information about the disembarkation plans to ensure everyone has a safe and smooth experience leaving the ship.

All guests will have the option to disembark directly from their stateroom to the gangway at an allocated time, or to request Fast Track disembarkation, available between 7.00am and 7.30am. It is important that your allocated time is adhered to, avoiding potential crowds at the gangway area and respecting social distancing protocols.

The Purser's Office are available on extension 33000 to assist with any queries, book mobility assistance and take requests for Fast Track disembarkation. Fast Track disembarkation spaces are limited and guests will be responsible for carrying all their luggage with them. The deadline for Fast Track disembarkation is 8.00pm on Thursday, 26 August.

Silent chart auction: The Prince's Trust.

To raise funds for the Prince's Trust Charity, we will be holding a silent auction for an authentic Navigational Chart from this voyage, signed by Captain Inger Klein Thorhauge and the rest of the Navigation Team that also includes the route taken on this voyage. The chart will be on display in the Grand Lobby on Deck 1 from 12.00pm (noon) on Thursday, 26 August, and bids will be accepted until 6.00pm. The Navigational Chart is now on display on Deck 9 by the Table Tennis area.

UK VAT.

Guests should be aware that this is a UK only or Intra UK voyage from Southampton to Southampton. In line with Her Majesty's Revenue & Customs regulations, VAT is payable on items purchased in our gift shops. This is because Duty/Tax free shopping is not available unless our ships call at an international port. Prices displayed in the gift shop are exclusive of the 20% UK VAT which means that UK VAT will be added at the appropriate tax rate. Spa retail products and Art sales are inclusive of any tax requirements. Duty Free alcohol and tobacco items will not be available for sale in the shops on board.
