

Daily Programme.

From the Navigator.

Queen Elizabeth continued on a north easterly heading throughout the night. Today she crosses the westernmost point of the English Channel, heading north to England. The English Channel, known for being one of the busiest waterways in the world, in time has served as a natural defence of Britain: the Scepter'd Isle, a precious stone set in the silver sea. In the early hours of tomorrow morning Queen Elizabeth will embark her Southampton pilot in preparation for her passage through the Solent.

How to keep healthy on board.

So as to limit your chances of becoming unwell, we recommend you take the following precautionary measures:

- Social distancing should be practiced throughout your holiday. We'll make this as easy as possible, with signs and crew to guide you.
- Wear a face mask when moving around indoors and when seated in the theatre.
- Wash your hands often and use hand sanitiser when hand-washing facilities are not available.
- Cough or sneeze into a tissue or bent elbow, and not into your hands; throw used tissues in the bin and wash your hands afterwards.
- Avoid contact with anyone you know who is unwell and their close contacts.
- Remain vigilant and report any COVID-19 symptoms to the Medical team by dialling 999 or 911.
- If you are contacted by NHS Test and Trace to self-isolate whilst on board, please contact the Medical team immediately by dialling 999 or 911.

Luggage collection.

Place your luggage outside your stateroom between 5.00pm and 11.00pm today. We would appreciate your co-operation in placing any luggage outside as early as possible, even if you only have one case ready.
