

Daily Programme.

From the Navigator.

Today, on our last sea day, Queen Elizabeth finds herself steaming back towards the United Kingdom. Her route will transit down through the North Sea, into the busy shipping lanes of the Dover Straits and finally back into the English Channel. On the approach into Southampton in the early hours of tomorrow morning, Queen Elizabeth will embark the local pilot and make her way up the Solent, to her final berth.

Time change notice.

Early on Wednesday morning at 2.00am, the ship's clocks will be set back by one hour. Please set your watches back by one hour before retiring this evening, Tuesday, 29 March.

Silent Chart Auction: The Prince's Trust.

We will be holding a silent auction for an authentic Navigational Chart from this voyage, signed by Captain Stephen Howarth and the ship's Deck Officers that also includes the route taken on this voyage. Bids will be accepted until 6.00pm.

Mini-Bar.

Bathrobes and items from your stateroom mini-bars are still available for purchase up until you finally disembark Queen Elizabeth. Items consumed on the final night of your voyage may not appear on your final statement as these will be charged separately to your registered method of payment. If you have opted for a cash account please make sure that any late charges are covered by your account balance to avoid any delays with your disembarkation.

Hotel and Dining Charges.

During your voyage you receive excellent service from many members of our staff in a variety of locations. Additionally, many more behind the scenes supporting those who serve you directly. For your convenience, a Hotel and Dining Charges - shown on your on board account as Service Charge - has been automatically added to your shipboard account. The Service Charge will be shared amongst those staff that help provide and support your voyage experience, including the restaurant staff, stateroom stewards and accommodations staff, buffet stewards and others.

Tell us about your Cunard experience.

Feedback is important and at Cunard, we value hearing your comments, ideas and thoughts. Therefore, shortly after the end of this voyage, you will receive an email inviting you to complete an online questionnaire; giving you the opportunity to share your views and help us shape the future Cunard experience. Currently this is in addition to the paper questionnaire you will receive, as we transition to electronic only in the future.

Environmental.

In order to ensure that the world's oceans and our many beautiful and unique voyage destinations remain pristine, Cunard Line prides itself on maintaining the highest standards of compliance with regards to national and international laws for the protection of the environment. In order to help save fuel and fresh water, guests are kindly asked to turn lights and televisions off when not in their staterooms and not to leave taps running unnecessarily. This would help us with our Environmental Policy, ISO 14001 and 5001, which requires us to continually improve our environmental management and reduce our carbon footprint.
