In the port of Lisbon, Portugal

Port Highlights

Lisbon is the capital city and largest city of Portugal. It is the westernmost large city located in Europe, as well as its westernmost capital city and the only one along the Atlantic coast. Lisbon is one of the oldest cities in the world, predating other modern European capitals such as London, Paris and Rome by hundreds of years. Julius Caesar made it a municipium called Felicitas Julia, adding to the name Olissipo. Ruled by a series of Germanic tribes from the fifth century, it was captured by the Moors in the eighth century. In 1147, the Crusaders under Afonso Henriques reconquered the city and since then it has been a major political, economic, and cultural centre of Portugal. A traditional form of public transport in Lisbon is the tram. Introduced in the 19th century, the trams were originally imported from the USA. Other than on the modern Line 15, the Lisbon tramway system still employs small (four wheel) vehicles of a design dating from the early part of the twentieth century. These distinctive yellow trams are one of the tourist icons of modern Lisbon, and their size is well suited to the steep hills and narrow streets of the central city.

Ship's Security and Safety Notice in Lisbon

Whilst many thousands of tourists visit Lisbon each year without incident, we would like to remind you about the ongoing threat caused by pickpockets.

There are a few simple things that will reduce the chances of you becoming a victim of crime.

- · Please do not carry high value items.
- · Always zip / close your bags.
- · Do not take all your bank or credit cards with you.
- Keep a close eye on any bag (backpack / handbag) whist eating in restaurants. Try and keep them within view.
- · Avoid items which easily identify you as a tourist.
- Leave your passport on the ship.

Your safety and security are always our prime concern when you are on board the ship. Whilst the chances of you being affected by pickpockets is slim it is important for us that you are aware of this localised issue and remain vigilant.

Should it be required, the Lisbon Tourist Police (PSP Turismo) are available where officers speak several languages. They can also be contacted on
