Tonight: Smart Attire

Queen Anne Voyage H429

Time zone: GMT+1

Sunrise 8.19am Sunset 6.21pm

At sea, en route to Lisbon, Portugal

From the Navigator

The seas between Gibraltar and Lisbon were the scenes of many naval battles. The seas surrounding Cádiz and Gibraltar staged the Battle of Trafalgar, the pivotal naval war of the Napoleonic wars. Outnumbered by the combined French and Spanish Fleet, Admiral Nelson famously fell in battle, not living to see his masterminded success and place in naval history. As we head up the coast, the Portuguese city of Faro was occupied by the Moors in the eight century, famous for their navigational expertise, settled in the ancient city having sailed from the Southern Mediterranean. Many stars used in our navigation are named in Arabic as a consequence of their expertise in celestial movements and navigating by the stars. Faro was held for over 500 years by the Moors, who left an indelible mark on the architecture within the region.

Ship's Security and Safety Notice in Lisbon

Whilst many thousands of tourists visit Lisbon each year without incident, we would like to remind you about the ongoing threat caused by pickpockets.

There are a few simple things that will reduce the chances of you becoming a victim of crime.

- Please do not carry high value items.
- Always zip / close your bags.
- Do not take all your bank or credit cards with you.
- Keep a close eye on any bag (backpack / handbag) whilst eating in restaurants. Try and keep them within view.
- Avoid items which easily identify you as a tourist.
- Leave your passport on the ship.

Your safety and security are always our prime concern when you are on board the ship. Whilst the chances of you being affected by pickpockets is slim it is important for us that you are aware of this localised issue and remain vigilant.

Should it be required, the Lisbon Tourist Police (PSP Turismo) are available where officers speak several languages. They can also be contacted on:
