Port Highlights

Step off your ship and into a little piece of Portuguese paradise in the archipelago of Madeira, in the Atlantic Ocean. Enchanting towns and villages, breathtaking landscapes, a spectacular array of unique flora, and delicious local wines are awaiting your discovery on a cruise to the Portuguese islands of Madeira. You will dock in the capital city of Funchal, an area bustling with bars and restaurants that radiate local charm. From here, you can explore further into the unique Madeira countryside, where imposing mountainous slopes give way to lush rainforests and vast moorlands. Madeira sits off the north-western coast of Africa, a little further north than its popular neighbours, the Canary Islands. An archipelago comprising four small islands, the capital port city of Funchal sits on Madeira's largest island, a land teeming with visual, culinary, and experiential delights. Funchal port lies just over a mile and a half from the city centre, and is situated on the south of the island. From here, you can spend time exploring the stunning botanical gardens, lounge on pebbly beaches, or take a trip further inland to experience a unique landscape that seems to shift every few miles.

Your security and safety ashore this voyage

Whilst we do not wish to restrict your movements ashore today and in our upcoming ports, we do suggest taking the following precautions:

- Do not stray from the main tourist areas
- Do not wear any jewellery that is likely to attract attention

- We advise you to be careful if you are taking any high value items, including cameras, ashore
- Maintain an awareness of your surroundings at all times

Ship's security notice

In order to prevent unauthorised persons boarding the ship, you are required to carry your Voyage card with you when going ashore. You will be asked to produce this at the gangway when you leave and return to the ship.
