Port Highlights

Sailing through Norway's glass-like waters en route to Ålesund, you will be struck by a sweeping peninsula of Art Nouveau architecture, stretching to lush greenery, where mountain peaks reach skyward, reflected in the converging fjords. Arriving in Ålesund, you could be forgiven for thinking you had stepped off your ship into the pages of a fairy tale. A myriad of towering spires and decorative turrets, it is easy to see why this vibrant fishing port is regarded as one of the prettiest cities in Norway. A town that rose from the ashes after almost being destroyed in its entirety by a fire in 1904, Ålesund now expands across seven small islands, seamlessly connected via an elaborate network of underwater tunnels. Welcoming locals, delicious fresh cuisine, enchanting architecture, and breathtaking scenery are just some of the highlights to look forward to if your Norwegian adventure includes a call in Ålesund. Top landmarks and sights in Ålesund are the Molja lighthouse, Aksla viewpoint, and Sunnmøre Museum. Coastal gastronomy is the highlight of Ålesund's cuisine. You will spot fishing boats bobbing in the harbour, reeling in freshly caught seafood and shellfish to be served up at welcoming restaurants around the city. You won't have to travel far from port if you are looking to stock-up on a native Norwegian keepsake in Ålesund. The port is situated close to some of the best shopping spots in the city.
