ROARING
20_s

Recall the era of flappers, jazz and fun with our playful take on the decadent culture of the 1920s. Step out in style in your elegant Gala Evening attire, where embellishments which embrace the spirit of the Roaring 20s are always welcome.

Please refer to the  symbol throughout for full details of the daytime and evening events.

From the Navigator

Today begins in the Eastern Ionian Sea as we head westward on our two-day sea passage to Barcelona. The morning will be spent steaming towards the Messina Straits, the small stretch of water between mainland Italy and the island of Sicily. At its narrowest point it is only 1.9 miles across. After our strait transit is complete later this afternoon, we alter course to the west and traverse the gap between northern Sicily and the Eolie islands, as we pass to the south of the aptly named volcanic island of Vulcano!

THE PINNACLE

General Sir Simon Mayall - Military History

Gallipoli Part One (The Road to War)

In the early hours of 25 April 1915, in a bold attempt to knock the Ottoman Empire out of the war, and to break the deadlock on the Western Front, thousands of British, Australian, New Zealander, Indian and French soldiers landed on the shores of the Gallipoli Peninsula. In the first of two lectures, General Sir Simon Mayall, a career soldier and historian, will trace the political, diplomatic and military events that had led to this fateful moment in world history.
